

REES VICE PRESIDENT TO PRESENT AT NCANPHA CONFERENCE

Continuing her commitment to ongoing excellence in senior living design education, Beverly Brandon, AIA, CASP will present "Which At Home Initiative is Right for Your Community?" to the North Carolina Association of Non-Profit Homes for the Aging on May 11, 2010.

The presentation will highlight the many types of At Home Initiatives and discuss how to determine the right one to implement at your community in order to expand your market and support your mission. Additionally, the session will discuss the innovative programs that are emerging in the market place and how they may affect your community.

The session will be presented in partnership with Cyndi Walters, Vice President of Presbyterian Senior Living, and Mario McKenzie, Principal of LarsonAllen Health Care Group.

Nationally recognized as an expert in senior living design, Ms. Brandon is an avid researcher and a frequent presenter for senior living associations across the nation. She has authored numerous articles on best practices and emerging trends in senior living.
